WEDNESDAY JULY 27, 1921

With the Editors

We enjoyed every moment of the time spent with the Virginia editors on Hampton Roads last week. Beautiful Ocean View, headquarters of the association, is a most attractive place. The president of the Chamber Commerce welcomed the editors, and A. H. Clement responded. Pugh and Latimer were re-elected. A. H. Clement, director for 19th district. After the business of the association was completed the editors were invited to a banquet prepared for them by the Chamber of Commerce of Norfolk Friday evening. It was a brilliant affair with numerous fine speeches. Saturday a boat trip was made to York town, and the editors and guests of the "Virginia" that day will never forget the feast furnished for lunch and dinner on that boat. Capt. Boutwell is rightly called a prince of entertainers. The editors saw Hampton Roads under most favorable circumstances with Pedro looking after every wish and comfort of the party. The generous hospitality of Hampton Roads will always abide.

The last call for the dear voters has been made and all are expected to beat their respective precincts on next Tuesday, August 2nd. We predict the nomination of Mr. Tucker for Governor and that Appomattox county will be the only county in his district to cast her vote against him. Let the Tucker voters get out to the polls and carry along with them every possible voter.

Berkley D. Adams has returned from an active campaign for re-election to the Corporation Commission in order to attend to his official duties. The people should reward the man who places public service above personal interests. Vote for Adams August 2nd.

The Tobacco Growers Drive Fifteen thousand tobacco farmers of this State who have signed the cooperative marketing contract to pool their crop for five years, and have won a majority sign-up in Virginia, received letters from their State Headquarters this week urging the attainment of a 75% sign-up by September 1st.

The victory won by Virginia tobacco farmers in the cooperative marketing movement is epoch making, and to the scores and hundreds of hard working farmers and business men who have quit their daily work and gone up and down the country side, signing their neighbors, friends and fellow citizens, belongs the credit of success.

The farmers who fed our armies overseas, and sent more fighting men to France than any other class, will continue fighting to win a lasting freedom from their present economic bondage, until the final victory is theirs.

Sixty per cent of tobacco growers signing their declaration of independence now, will make it unnecessary for sixty per cent of our planters to keep signing crop mortgages in future years.

A months work now means years of security in the future. North Carolina is steadily nearing her goal in the sign-up of both cotton and tobacco, but the planters of Virginia must aid the Carolinians in hastening the completion of the tri-state pool.

The leaders of the movement have announced that no effort or expense will now be spared to complete their campaign with 75% of the State's tobacco by September 1st.

Mass meetings in every county will be held within the next six weeks, and every signer of the five year contract is urged to win another signer, and help with this campaign.

County and local units of the Marketing Association are asked to rally to this final call, and speakers of State-wide prominence will campaign the old tobacco belt for the last time in Virginia's final rally for cooperative markets and the safety of our country homes.

Pittsylvania has now signed close to 3,000 growers, Halifax has added fourteen million pounds of tobacco to the tri-state pool, Charlotte county has over 90% of signers, and most of the large producing counties of the state have signed large majorities. Other counties which were late in entering the drive have launched ed a fresh drive, and within the next week, the advance to 75% will be under way.

Buckingham

The fare on the rail road leading from Millwyn to Richmond has been reduced some. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Eubank and Miss Nannie Kilham arrived here last Saturday having motored from Mayaville, N. C., it took about 15 gallons of gas to make the run. Miss Annie Edridge, who has lived here most of her life, died after an illness of a few months; she was related to some of the best families in the State. Mr. Charlie Rosen has purchased the old home place where he was raised and he is one of the young men who understands farming and who has the energy and enterprise to carry on the work. A trip through a part of Mayaville and part of State river districts found some improvement going on among the farmers and the free use of time is making crops of grass and clover and tobacco crops look well, but not much was planted. Mr. Emmet Gaultie has come back to the county from Iowa and is living at the old family home place; he has been a successful stock raiser and a nice team of horses. The section of country near Nuckalee post office, which has not had the nice rains that we have had in the part of the county and crops are suffering from the drought. A local merchant bought a car load of lard and I hear that the wholesale price was 8 cents a pound. Quotations written us from a Richmond commission house give the price of lard at 27 cents, hams at from 30 to 40 cents, smoked sides 20 and smoked shoulders 20 cents; veal calves advanced to 10 cents for the best last week. My pea fields are in bloom and a man coming 200 miles across the country said he had not seen as good a crop. Most people who have harvested Irish potatoes report a short crop, melons are late but seem to be plentiful.

Saw mill men are getting busy and they are getting larders at prices that will enable them to carry on the business. I ran across a man who had 40 pigs for sale, but they are too late to make killing hogs now. The big meeting is in progress at the tabernacle this week and people from far and near will be there and as usual people will be there who rarely ever enter a church. Some go for one purpose some for another, but it is to be hoped that all may join in the worship of God.

The county school board meets here on July 26th, but the annual settlement of accounts will hardly be made at that meeting. Miss Leola Gillispie who has so long done efficient work as principal of the Knoxville graded school expects to teach in the Dilwyn high school the coming season. The faculty of the Buckingham high school has not been completed as yet. Professor Davidson has been invited to come back for another term as principal, but we do not know as yet who will be our principal.

Vote for Senator J. E. West for Lieutenant-Governor. The candidate with a record and a definite business man's platform. Worked and voted for measures which distributed over one and one-half million dollars additional for rural graded and one and two room schools. Voted to more than double the appropriation for State aid to county roads connecting with the main highway system. Favored a reduction of the tax on capital of manufacturers and shares of bank stock. Opposed the increased State license tax on merchants. Patron of the first Seed Bill. Favors a total State and local tax rate not exceeding fifty cents on bonds and notes secured by real estate. Opposes the $50,000,000 State bond issue for roads and any increase in taxes for any purpose.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Cancer.

Cancer being generally influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the system and assisting nature in doing its work.

The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer one hundred dollars for any case of Catarrh of the bladder, prostate or rectum, which cannot be cured by this medicine.
